JUDGE S. B. DOLE IS REAPPOINTED

PLANTERS DISCUSSING LABOR MATTER

The Planters' Association held an executive session this morning on the labor question. It was executive in character, only members being allowed in the chamber and the ban of secrecy was placed upon those present. The session was called for 9 o'clock, but did not get under way until a little later than that hour. Adjournment was taken at 12:10 until 1:30 this afternoon. At the time of adjournment the discussion was unfinished on one phase of the several headed question before the house; and the matter was taken up this afternoon at the concluding point of the morning.

Vice President Pfothenauer was in the chair, and with him were Secretary W. O. Smith, Assistant Secretary Warren and Royal D. Mead. The attendance was slightly different from previous days, more of the heads of large establishments being present—some of them on previous days being represented by officers other than the head of the house. For instance, F. A. Schaefer was present for the first time, representing his concern; and there were other adjustments of representation of equally notable.

The first thing done was to close the doors to the outside world. Chairman Pfothenauer rapped for order and stated the objects of the executive session. The report from the labor bureau, which was the business of the day, was taken up and read through.

This report went at length into the subject of immigration, giving the particulars of the Russian, Portuguese and other labor projects of the year, together with a statement of the apparent outlook. The labor situation in the Islands was gone into in detail, and the unhappy as well as the propitious happenings of the past few months recited. The report also included a statement of the present wage system and the contract system as employed on some of the plantations, and which bears promise of adoption generally throughout the group, under certain circumstances. The Japanese trouble and the circumstances of the ending of the strike were gone into, and a scheme of wages on a scale which will take into consideration the island, distance from Honolulu, and several other points is suggested.

This report, in its many details, was taken up for discussion, the argument continuing until noon without arriving at any tangible result with respect to any point. As stated above, the argument was resumed this afternoon and a decision will be reached one way or another before the day is over.

The proposal of the Japanese editors, it is understood, did not come up for consideration this morning, although it is reported that it will appear during the afternoon. The indications are (if the trend of the discussion may be taken as indicating anything) that the contract system, especially with respect to Orientals will be regarded favorably; and that there will be a readjustment rather than a general advance in wage schedules.

Chairman Pfothenauer states it to be the intention of the Association to announce in detail the final conclusions of the body soon after the same are adopted this afternoon. Vice President Pfothenauer will preside at the dinner, which will take place in the mauka dining hall of the hotel. The banquet hall, by the way has been extensively draped in greens, sugar cane being largely used in the scheme of decorating.

The literary or "vaudeville" part of the program will take place in the mauka hall, fifth floor to which the party will adjourn in the jolly hours of the late evening.

FIRST FEDERAL JUDGE RECEIVES NEW COMMISSION

Hon. Sanford B. Dole, First Judge of the United States District Court for Hawaii, today received from Attorney General Wickersham, Washington, a cablegram stating that a recess commission had been signed by the President, reappointing him to the Federal judgeship before mentioned. Judge Dole's present commission will expire on the twenty-third of this month, which is Tuesday next. His reappointment is therefore in full term of six years dating from good time to serve as a Thanksgiving present from President Taft. At all events, it is in keeping with the scarcely needed endorsement of the Hawaiian Bar Association by unanimous vote.

THANKSGIVING PIG'S FASHIONABLE PEN

SPEAKER HOLSTEIN'S HOLIDAY GIFT TO FORMER SENATOR ATTRACTS ATTENTION FROM NOSES OF NEIGHBORS IN RESIDENCE BLOCK IN HEART OF THE CITY—HIGH PRICE OF TURKEY MAKES PIG POPULAR.

A Thanksgiving pig is causing all kinds of frustration in one of the most fashionable residential blocks of the city proper.

Residents of the square bounded by Beretania avenue, Miller street, Hotel street and Richards street, will all have something to be very thankful for on Thursday next, for then, probably, the pig that is creating all the excitement will have been executed, roasted and eaten.

There is necessarily considerable mystery about the young porker for the reason that his present habitat is under the John Ena residence and the neighbors have not had an opportunity of seeing him face to face, nor of looking into his innocent, unsuspecting eyes.

As near as can be learned the pig was raised by Speaker of the House of Representatives H. Lincoln Holstein, of Kohala, and was presented to former Senator John Lane who occupies the Ena mansion fronting on Miller street. For about a week the young pig has been inhabiting the nether regions of the house aforesaid, in process of becoming fattened on dainty scraps from the table, and is booked for still further fattening before Thanksgiving day. Turkeys are so outrageously high this year that pig is more popular; hence the Senator's glad acceptance of the Kohala pig.

But the neighbors have noticed the pig by his perfume and there was never more anxiety for the quick coming of Thanksgiving day than is now manifested by the residents of the block mentioned. He is a quiet pig, probably for the reason that he is well fed, but his quietness does not make up for his odor.

Berger's hand was practicing next door when the man with the bassoon laid aside his instrument and asked Berger what were the office hours of the Board of Health. It seems he wanted to call for an investigation of the block to ascertain the whenceness of the aroma.

Central Union Church is on the same block but, fortunately for the congregation, the sacred edifice is to windward of the pig.

It is reported that a near neighbor, in the rear of the Ena building, attempted to tempt the pig through the fence by means of an apple on the end of a stick, but, quite unconscious of his Thanksgiving fate, the pig remains faithful to his present basement lodgings.

500 SHOT WITHOUT A TRIAL

ANARCHY IN CENTRAL AMERICA; WARSHIPS SENT

(Special Cable to The Star by the United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Leonard Grace and Leroy Cannon are the two Americans executed in Nicaragua by President Zelaya, according to advices received here from Central America. The dispatches state that the two Americans were executed without trial, on suspicion that they were rebel sympathizers.

The reports of 500 other executions have created a situation which it is said will result in American intervention. Zelaya is said to plan establishing a Central American union of states, with himself as head. It is also reported that President Diaz of Mexico is interested in the revolution which Zelaya is trying to repress and that Mexico and the United States may join in intervention to prevent further outrages.

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

PANAMA, November 18.—Terror reigns in Nicaragua; the people are in a panic of fear. Five hundred persons suspected by the Nicaraguan forces of being in sympathy with and of assisting the troops of the revolutionists, have, without trial, been put to death by the rifle.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 18.—President Zelaya of Nicaragua has according to official advices received here today, ordered the execution of two American men who are reported to have been found by the Nicaraguan troops with the soldiers of the revolutionists.

Believing the Americans to be aiding the rebels, Zelaya ordered them shot without a trial and it is believed that this outrageous sentence has already been carried out.

President Taft has issued orders for the immediate departure of the United States gunboats Vicksburg and Des Moines, to proceed to the scene of action and to take such steps as are necessary to the protection of Americans and American interests.

The President has refused to receive the Nicaraguan minister. It is expected that the United States government will resort to the most drastic measures in this matter and that Nicaragua will be brought to account for the treatment accorded the two Americans.

NEW YORK, November 18.—The Wells Fargo express and banking corporation has increased its capital stock from eight to twenty-four millions.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 18.—A wing of St. Luke's Hospital, this city, has been burned, supposedly by an incendiary. One arrest has been made on suspicion.

CENSUS PLANS
DR. CLARK WILL MAKE A SPECIALTY OF JAPANESE COLONIZATION IN HAWAII.
Dr. Victor S. Clark, commissioner of census, and his assistant, W. C. Weedon, were engaged this morning at census headquarters in the Capitol with the problem of redistricting Honolulu city for enumeration purposes.
To a Star reporter Dr. Clark stated that outside of Honolulu nineteen or twenty enumerators will be employed. Some of them will be simply for the purpose of recording the people on the plantations.
"For general supervision work," Dr. Clark said, "we shall probably have two or three people."
"Last time there were twenty-five enumerators for Honolulu proper. It is fair to say we shall need five more at least for this census. In April or May, therefore, there will be forty-five or fifty people at work. Until April there will not be over three or four."
"This census is going to afford one of the best opportunities that has ever been given to show the progress of a Japanese colony in a foreign country," Dr. Clark added, "not only with respect to laborers but to colonists."
"We want the cooperation of leading Japanese here to assist in gathering the social and economic history of the Japanese in Hawaii."
